The text for Easter Love Letters from God was written several years ago, before I became cognizant of the importance of using gender-neutral language for God. However, even though it is a goal of mine to strive to use inclusive language in all future writing, I felt that the Gethsemane scene in this book, which contains the heartfelt plea from Jesus, to God, simply could not be written any other way.

“Love Letters From God is a beautiful book containing three powerful elements with each Bible account - a well-written story that conveys the Bible message clearly to young readers & listeners, a Love Letter reinforcing the idea taught and reminding those little ears that God knows & loves them, a verse that wraps everything up.”

The love letter in The Darkest Day story states that God cried when Jesus died. It states that God felt alone. Scripture does not indicate this. All scripture tells us is that God turned his back on Jesus. The author is assuming what God thought and in that way is placing herself in God’s shoes. This book will not be used again in our home.
