That's how I created my "Gallows Day" story -- I tried to re-tell Dolectt's "Tightrope Zone" story in prose fiction from the point of view of Lucy. You might think about doing that some day. (You could re-tell "Ali's Bet" story from the point of view of one of the secondary characters, maybe Jessica.

The guests, relieved and excited to have gone through (for many) their first experience in cannibalism, were now much more relaxed and sociable. As they indulged in expensive drinks and smokes, they got to know their fellow cannibals, asking where they were from, what they did, and exchanging phone number and addresses.
