Financial Accounting vs. Managerial Accounting

Financial accounting pertains to the business as a whole and may include the performance of individual sections if such data is relevant to changes from past reporting. The focus of managerial accounting is on the future; it takes today's data and forecasts future financial events: budget shortfalls and/or excesses, for example. Financial and Managerial Accounting: The Basis for Business Decisions continues to offer a solid foundation for students who are learning basic accounting concepts. Known for giving equal weight to financial and managerial topics, the authors emphasize the need for a strong foundation in both aspects of accounting.
