FDB - HARDY BALLARD

In my third grade classroom, students write in journals every day for about 20 minutes. Each day, after read-aloud time, the kids go back to their desks, pull out their journals, and start writing! By writing every day, the students gain fluency while getting a chance to practice important punctuation, spelling, and style skills in context.

Journal Writing Ideas, how it helps you tell your story

Ideally, journal writing addresses your deepest, most personal thoughts, and even thoughts that somehow scares you. Laying down your thoughts on paper renders an organization and order inside your brain, which at more times than we care to admit, have the tendency to become such a tangled, messy place.
