Havana Bay Arkady Renko Arkady Renko - Book Series In Order

Havana Bay is a crime novel by Martin Cruz Smith, set in Cuba. It is the fourth novel to feature Investigator Arkady Renko, and it won the 1999 Hammett Prize. Cruz Smith has stated the book allowed him to explore America's "insane" relationship with Cuba and that it led to some criticism of him in the U.S.

Gorky Park is the first novel of the Arkady Renko series. Arkady is a chief investigator for the Soviet Militia within Moscow. He is in charge of different homicide investigations. The sequels are that he takes different roles from a worker on a fish processing ship to the militiaman worker.

Former Inspector for the Moscow Militsiya, Arkady Renko, is summoned to Cuba to identify a liquefying corpse, dragged from the oily waters of Havana Bay. Renko finds himself in a decaying country, the final recess of Communism - a place where Russia is despised, exotic rituals take precedence and unexpected danger meets bewildering contradictions.
