For All Christians Who Yearn for Revival God's Way This no-compromise biblical clarion call to revival is timeless. Leonard Ravenhill clearly shows how the church can be brought from where it is to where it ought to be. The church still needs his message, first published in 1983, for as Ravenhill said, "We live in a generation which has never know revival--God's way." The message is drastic, fearless, and often radical. His goal for the church is nothing less than full restoration to the glory, power, holiness, and dignity that Christ intended for it.

Kipling portrays school as the first stage of a much larger game, a pattern maker for the experiences of life. Implied throughout the book is the question 'What happened to the fifteen-year boys, and how did the lessons they learned at school apply to the world of warfare and imperial government?' These stories are based on Kipling's own schooling, the United Services College at Westward Ho! in Devon.

A succinct, readable and biblically-based treatment of the vital theme of revival. Its seven short chapters go directly to the heart of the matter.

What is prayer? Are we really praying when we pray? Do we know the power of prayer? These matters and others must be understood if we would have a real prayer life and be effective in prayer. In this little volume of collected messages given over a long period of ministry by the author, and which are now translated and published in English for the first time, Watchman Nee shares with us the lessons on prayer that he has learned through the years. He considers prayer to be a mystery, though not something that is incomprehensible. He views prayer as the greatest work to which men are called. It is a working together with God. Through it, God's purpose is accomplished and Satan's intentions are broken. And its benefit to the one who prays is something great as well. Let us therefore follow the admonition of our blessed Lord, who said: "Rise and pray" (Luke 22.46).

For seventeen years, Elaine served her master, Satan, with total commitment. Then she met Dr. Rebecca Brown, who served her master, Jesus Christ, with equal commitment. Elaine, one of the top witches in the U.S., clashed with Dr. Brown, who stood against her alone. In the titanic life-and-death struggle that followed, Dr. Brown nearly lost her life. Elaine, finding a power and love greater than anything Satan could give her, left Satan and totally committed her life to Jesus Christ. This is an honest, in-depth account of Satan's activities today. You'll see how to: Recognize and combat the many satanists who regularly infiltrate and destroy Christian churches. Recognize and combat satanic attacks. Recognize those serving Satan, and bring them to Jesus Christ.

A mensagem de Laodicéia é a mensagem primordial para os nossos dias: que reconheçamos os nossos erros, nossas limitações e deixemos que o Cristo da Glória que bate a nossa porta, venha cear conosco.

Charles Henry Mackintosh (1820-1896) was a nineteenth-century Christian preacher, dispensationalist, writer of Bible commentaries, magazine editor and member of the Plymouth Brethren. Mackintosh's literary fame rests primarily upon his work: "Notes on the Pentateuch," beginning with a volume of 334 pages on Genesis, and concluding with a two-volume work on Deuteronomy extending to over 800 pages. His books have been translated into a dozen or more languages. Brethren historian Roy Coad notes: "Another popular writer among the exclusives was an Irish schoolmaster, Charles Henry Mackintosh, who preached extensively in the revival movement. The initials 'C.H.M.' became familiar in many pious evangelical households of the later Victorian and Edwardian years. No critical scholar, Mackintosh nevertheless had a marked gift for simple Biblical exposition, and his works on the Pentateuch had an enormous vogue as simple aids to devotional interpretation for the first five books of the Bible." The works Mackintosh are characterized by a deep-toned evangelical spirit and the enjoyment of the God's Word.

In this hour of all-but-universal darkness, one cheering gleam appears: within the fold of conservative Christianity there are to be found increasing numbers of persons whose religious lives are marked by a growing hunger after God Himself. They are eager for spiritual realities and will not be put off with words, nor will they be content with correct "interpretations" of truth. They are athirst for God and they will not be satisfied till they have drunk deep at the Fountain of Living Water... This book is a modest attempt to aid God's hungry children so to find Him. Nothing here is new except in the sense that it is a discovery which my own heart has made of spiritual realities most delightful and wonderful to me. Others before me have gone much farther into these holy mysteries than I have done, but if my fire is not large it is yet real, and there may be those who can light their candle at its flame. -A.W. Tozer

O que é um "discípulo"? Ou melhor: o que é "construir" um discípulo? Este livro trata sobre o papel do discipulador como "mentor" e as sete fases do discipulado, desde a acolhida do novo-convertido (o "não envolvimento" é um problema comum em muitas igrejas) até o preparo do mesmo para cumprir o "ide" de Jesus, fazendo do discipulador um construtor de felizes e frutíferos servos de Cristo.

This book is essentially bound as a Wire-O bound journal, with a hardback cover wrapping around the entire book, even the spine. This keeps the book in good shape for a long time, and also provides for optimum usability. The One True God is a unique kind of workbook, intending not just to teach truth but to lead to an encounter with the living God. Beneath that goal the book aims to ground believers in orthodox Christian theology and the actual contents of the Bible. Students are encouraged to thoughtfully draw conclusions from the Scriptures rather than to merely absorb the principles, inferences, and illustrations set before them by the author. For this reason the book does not include such material and instead focuses on digesting the Scriptures directly. Through God's own words and under various systematic headings the book unfolds the nature of God. In this way the reader is set on a firm foundation and will readily perceive the centrality and high authority of biblical doctrine within the Christian life. It is the author's conviction that the study of doctrine is both an intellectual and devotional discipline. Therefore students are guided throughout the study to think through and apply the truths they learn, meditating on the demands of Scripture for their heart and mind. The book puts us squarely in the middle of the material and demands we give searching thought to how we will live before such a God. This workbook is especially suited for the following contexts: (1) doctrinal training for new converts; (2) college and adult group Bible studies; (3) private study; (4) Christian or home school curriculum; (5) Sunday school material; (6) an aid to parents in teaching the Word of God to their children.

Most church members don't see their churches clearly. In almost all of Thom S. Rainer's consultations, church members perceive their church to be friendly. But as he surveyed guests, he found that the guests typically saw church members as unfriendly. The perception chasm existed because the members were indeed friendly . . . to one another. The guests felt like they crashed a private party. Bestselling author Thom Rainer (I Am a Church Member, Autopsy of a Deceased Church) has a game plan for churches to become more hospitable. In a format that is suitable for church members to read individually or study together, Rainer guides readers toward a practical framework for making a difference for those who visit their church. Churches may use Becoming a Welcoming Church to assess and audit where they are on a spectrum between welcoming and wanting. Additionally, churches can use the companion book We Want You Here to send guests home with a compelling vision for what pastors want every guest to know when they visit.

Esta Bíblia reúne ajudas especiais para todas as pessoas que pregam o evangelho ou exercem algum cargo de liderança na Igreja. Ela disponibiliza os tesouros que têm sido usados ao longo de 60 anos por um pregador que começou seu ministério aos 11 anos, e tem sido um instrumento vivo de Deus como a mais eloquente voz do pentecostalismo brasileiro. Aqui o leitor encontrará quatro recursos que estão reunidos em grupos e distribuídos ao longo da Bíblia, identificados por ícones. São eles: Esboços: Milhares de esboços de mensagens que o Senhor tem dado ao seu autor ao longo de seus 60 anos atuando como pregador da Palavra de Deus. Curiosidades: São todos os diamantes que o autor tem encontrado dentro da arca de tesouros da Bíblia. Notas: É uma curiosidade enriquecida, expandida. Sementes: Em vez de meramente construir um esboço completo com sua visão particular, seus conhecimentos bíblicos, sua cultura geral, suas experiências e estilo de pregador, o pastor Geziel criou as sementes para levar o leitor que está manuseando esta Bíblia a usar seu próprio lastro na preparação do seu sermão.

Leonard Ravenhill presents prayer as faith in action in this fast-paced presentation of this crucial subject. He called prayer the most essential ingredient in producing revival. Filled with exhortations and illustrations, it teaches the art of effective praying--which will result in revival. Moody Monthly said,

"This is a plea for praying that will melt the preacher's heart, move the people, and magnify the Lord Jesus."

A Igreja Ocidental tem se corrompido a cada dia e aqueles que se dizem cristãos tem se corrompido em sua maioria de uma forma vergonhosa. O Cristianismo Pós-Moderno é uma vergonha que tem causado muitos escândalos. A Igreja Atual é um retrato fiél da igreja que precede o Arrebatamento: a Igreja de Laodicéia do Apocalipse. Uma Igreja arrogante, soberba e prepotente. Um igreja que se julga rica e autossuficiente — mas que Cristo a acusa de ser pobre espiritualmente e miserável sob todos os aspectos. Uma igreja que se julga triunfante — mas que na realidade está nua e é completamente cega! A igreja atual deixou Jesus Cristo do lado de fora. E toda uma geração de crentes acha que tudo está indo bem no melhor dos mundos possíveis. Mas a realidade está bem longe disso. O que esta geração mais precisa — do modo mais urgente e inadiável — são de verdadeiros profetas para alertarem o povo sobre o atual estado de caos da igreja atual e chamarem esse mesmo povo ao arrependimento urgente diante de Deus! A Igreja Atual necessita urgentemente de verdadeiros profetas para esta geração!

A história bíblica revela de forma circunstancial o anseio de Deus na busca pelo homem. Isso despon-ta, em todos os sentidos, de forma intrínseca, a respeito da necessidade que o homem tem de Deus. O autor se esforça para deixar perceptível que desde a fundação do mundo até agora, Deus busca relacionamentos, como um altruísta, sacrificando Seu Filho Jesus para que a humanidade o tenha por perto.

"My earnest wish is to paint in true colors the goodness of God to me, and the depth of my own ingratitude..." Jeanne Marie Bouvier de La Motte was born near Paris in 1648. She was a sickly child who married a wealthy neighbor (22 years her senior) when she was 16 years of age. At age 28 she was a widow with three small children. At age 47 she was imprisoned because her writings about God and prayer ran contrary to the established church of the time. She lost her freedom for 7 years during which time she continued to write about the God she loved. "People want to direct God instead of resigning themselves to be directed by Him. They want to show Him a way, instead of passively following that wherein He leads them. Hence many souls, called to enjoy God Himself, and not barely His gifts, spend all their lives in running after little consolations, and feeding on them—resting there only, making all their happiness to consist therein." You are invited to read Madame Guyon's autobiography and judge for yourself if her experiences and writings are ones to condemn or condone.

The Holy Spirit is often portrayed as something "weird." But the Bible makes it clear that the Spirit is not something. He is someone—a Person who has promised to never leave your side. John Bevere invites you into a personal discovery of the most ignored and misunderstood Person in the Church: the Holy Spirit.

Samuel Chadwick (1860-1932) was a Wesleyan Methodist minister, and a nonsense kind of preacher. His works have endured long after his death, and will doubtless continue to impact readers, as his practical approach and straight-forwards style make even the most complicated topic easy to grasp.

Heart Breathings is a fitting title for a book where words are only the vessel that somehow endeavors to hold, and show forth, the breathings of the spirit that is not flesh. There is a frustration when yearnings beyond words find themselves clothed in the only medium that can cause them to be tangible to others. These poems are the roarings and sighings and longings of the inarticulate soul trying to create a substance through which to transmit its feelings to others. Paul Ravenhill."

That thought-provoking question leads to many personal revelations demonstrating that we can recast our hearts to be more like that of Jesus, and the blessings created by the transformation will unleash ripples to the widest edges of our lives and those around us.

On the brink of collapse, our nations only hope is a visitation of Gods power and presence. What will heal the deep racial, social, and political divisions that are tearing us apart? How can we stop the evil of human trafficking? What can turn the rising tide of opioid addiction? What will cure the epidemic of fatherless homes? Man-made laws and policies dont hold the answers. Social programs and initiatives fall hopelessly short. There is no political solution. We must have divine visitation. We must have awakening. We must have revival. In Revival or We Die, respected biblical scholar, bestselling author, and radio host, Dr. Michael Brown calls the American Church back to God and His Kingdom purposes. He presents a prophetic state of the union address, offering a candid look at the United States and revealing why our only hope is a true spiritual awakening. Written with the same passion and zeal that characterized his early books, How Saved Are We? and Whatever Happened to the Power of God?, Dr. Brown issues a fresh clarion call to every true believer in this generation. ...- God sees the condition of our souls, how we have exchanged professionalism for the anointing, how we have traded dependence on the Spirit for fleshly endeavors, how we have substituted a carnal business approach for our first love devotion. Now is the time to awaken! If we are going to save our nation, the American Church must Rediscover the lost Word of God. Restore the fear of the Lord by catching a revelation of divine judgment and calling the Body to holiness. Rekindle the fire of first-love zeal and simple devotion to Jesus. Reignite a hunger for the all-consuming Spirit of God. The stirring message of this book is what every Christian must hear at this crucial moment. Our nation is at a tipping point, and you can play a pivotal role in the mighty revival that God longs to bring. Are you willing?
