Lil' Tugs Children's Boutique is located in the historic and the very pleasant town of Anacortes, Washington. Lil' Tugs was created with an inspiration to dress the lil' ones we love. We have put together an amazing selection of clothing for your infants and children to size 8.

Little Toot is a 1939 children's picture book written and illustrated by Hardie Gramatky. It features Little Toot, a small young tugboat in New York Harbor who does not want to tug. Instead, he would rather play, making figure eights in the harbor and thus being a nuisance to all the other tugboats. But when he ends up all alone on the open ocean as a storm is rolling in, it is up to him to save a grounded ocean liner.

Little Tug

Little Tug is having an identity crisis. The tall ship is taller. The speedboat is faster. The ocean liner is bigger. But when each of his friends is in trouble, Little Tug comes to the rescue ("he pulls, he pushes, and guides the boats to safety"), and each repays his kindness in his or her own unique way.
