Remember that life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away! Dancing can do that for you! Over the years other names have been attached to the quotation. For example, a posting in the Usenet newsgroup nz.tech in 2004 assigned the saying to the comedian George Carlin: 7.

A Moment to Breathe: 365 Devotions that meet you in your Everyday Mess is a great devotional written by transparent and honest women who let you into their lives in each devotion. Each daily devotion includes a scripture, a real life story from the author, and something to do for a moment to breathe.

With 365 readings, A Moment to Breathe begins each day with a passage of Scripture, tells a story of everyday faith, and encourages you to take a moment to breathe with a simple but fun way to complete your day. So kick off your shoes and join us for a relaxing but special time, where friends come together and share the real stuff of everyday faith.

A Moment to Breathe is a non profit organization. The founder and CEO, Stacey Cohen-Maitre, Ph.D., is the parent of four special needs children. Her oldest son, Asher, is diagnosed with severe cerebral palsy, in the form of quadriplegia in addition to cortical visual impairment which renders him non-ambulatory, nonverbal and severely visually impaired.

"I am never alone wherever I am. The air itself supplies me with a century of love. When I breathe in, I am breathing in the laughter, tears, victories, passions, thoughts, memories, existence, joys, moments, and the hues of the sunlight on many tones of skin; I am breathing in the same air that was exhaled by many before me.

There are few things more sacred in life than the birth of your baby and the first few weeks of having them home with you. It is a time of immense joy, pain, hormones and lack of sleep. It is my desire to provide parents with an extra layer of support giving them special moments to breathe through this sacred time.
