Monique and the Mango Rains - Essay - 2594 words

Monique and the Mango Rains isn't a saga of incredible proportions but rather the story of a simple village, the people who live there and the complex issues that arise in a culture where discrimination toward women and corruption are commonplace. Kris' job in the village is to assist Monique with her midwifery duties in the rundown birthing house, but nothing is *just* a job in the Peace Corps.
