*Each assessment strand has a descriptor at each level 1-2, 3-4, 5-6 and 7-8. Teachers use the descriptors against evidence in the work to decide which level to award the student per strand, and after all strands of a criterion have been attended to, to come to a holistic level for that criterion.

Years 1-9 The Arts: Drama assessments. Year 3: Our special place. Image source: Aidan and his wonderful playground by Lori05871 / CC BY 2.0. Description: Students create, present and respond to a drama story that expresses their ideas and feelings about a special place in the school.

When I started teaching MYP Performing Arts (Drama), I had very little to work with. The school had no drama curriculum in place, as it was never previously taught. The library was very under-resourced. The staff only thought of drama as a big school production, not as a subject with specific skills that can be taught, practiced and assessed.
