"On the Prowl" says the English title, and we might imagine a character shady from the start. But there is a noble error in casting, having Paul Muni as the actor-- Pasteur, Jaurez, beacon of progressive aspiration. Cynthia Eden is one of my favorite writer's for the very same reason I gave the book 4 stars. The author does an excellent job with character development, incorporating twists and turns, laugh-out-loud funny dialogue, and steamy sex. Yes, steamy. I really enjoyed On The Prowl, the second book in the Bad Things series.

I really enjoyed On The Prowl, the second book in the Bad Things series. I actually stayed up until the early morning to finish reading because once I started, there just wasn't a good place to stop. A confession, Rayce had me laughing so much, that I am looking forward to reading book three "Broken Angel". Okay, Luke kept me laughing as well.

On The Prowl is book two in the Bad Things series and is Julian and Rose's story. I absolutely loved the first book and I was worried that Julian's story wouldn't be able to compare with Luke and Mina's. I never should have doubted Cynthia Eden. This book was just as good! I loved every minute of it!
