Primerica itself reveals in their disclosure that the average income is little over 6k per year which isn't even close to minimum wage let alone a dream income. The warm market strategy is essentially leaning on family and friends (trusted relationships) with the sole purpose of selling them into your business or getting them to buy products.

Primerica representatives are independent contractors that solely get paid minute commissions through the sale of any of these financial products with some of the profits passed up to their up-line. The company employs an 11-tier upside system in which they get a fraction of the commissions from their downline down to the 11th level.

Primerica aims to help middle-income families get out of debt and earn more money, while PHP Agents go to low-income individuals to sell them a dream, a dream of making lots of money and living "the life".

Term life insurance is what Primerica is most well known for selling. It's a bit different than whole life insurance, in that the policy is only good for a certain period of time and only pays out in the event the policyholder dies during the insurance coverage dates.

And live on their own terms. Whether you want to earn a little extra money part-time or start a business, Primerica offers you the freedom to make your own decisions: Freedom from a job. Freedom from a boss. Freedom to be in business for yourself. Freedom to dream big.

Primerica has over 7 million clients and 130,000 licensed agents. Just because someone doesn't understand the business model, just because its different than what you are used to does not make it a scam or pyramid scheme, which by the way is illegal and they would've been shut down a long time ago.

Primerica.....look at their annual reports online. Tho they sell the "dream", 84% of new recruits and 35% of their licensed reps, leave the dream each year. They state their avg new policy sales per rep is currently 2.28 PER YEAR!

Sponsored by The Primerica Foundation, the exhibits will remain on display through March 9. "The Dream: Five Black Artists, Five Voices" features five Atlanta-based artists Paul S. Benjamin, Jerushia Graham, Henry Leonard, Lynn Marshall-Linnemeir and Nnamdi Okonkwo.

Stephen - Remember that Primerica pays smaller commissions to the person selling the policy than normal insurance companies because they have to pay so many levels of the pyramid. Also, the focus is on recruiting new reps, so the current reps naturally sell fewer policies than your typical agent (who is actually focused on selling the product, rather than recruiting).
