Shadows Over Main Street 2 Artist Luke Spooner created this rich and evocative illustration for my story in the forthcoming anthology, Shadows Over Main Street 2 . Much of my tale, "A Song Left Behind in the Aztakea Hills," is grounded in research I did in my hometown, Northport, and mixes a fair bit of fact with its fiction regarding the time Jack Kerouac spent here in the 60s.

"Shadows Over Main Street" is a highly entertaining anthology of 20 stories richly incorporating the style and characters of H.P. Lovecraft. One need not be a Lovecraft aficionado to appreciate these delectable tales of horror run amuck, but if one IS a Lovecraft fan, this collection will be a delightful find.

In the small nestled corners where people still move at a leisurely pace, Shadows Over Main Street introduces reasons to run. These streets are no longer safe.

Twenty authors came together to create this amazing new take on Lovecraft's world.
