Strategy process and context in determining strategy

The strategic management process means defining the organization's strategy. It is also defined as the process by which managers make a choice of a set of strategies for the organization that will enable it to achieve better performance. Strategic management is a continuous process that appraises the business and industries in which the organization is involved; appraises it's competitors; and fixes goals to meet all the present and future competitor's and then reassesses each strategy.

Dimensions of Strategic Change. In their book 'Managing Change for Competitive Success' (1991) Pettigrew and Whipp distinguish between three dimensions of strategic change: 1. Content (objectives, purpose and goals) - WHAT. 2. Process (implementation) - HOW. 3. Context (the internal and external environment) - WHERE.
