copper-helmeted giants rule There have been a number of intriguing finds in Indiana over the years including the discovery of eight skeletons, one clad in copper armor, buried in a perfect circle. In 1888, the Logan Grey's, a military group led by A.M. Jones were conducting military exercises on a small island on Eagle Lake near Warsaw, Indiana.

In the book of Emmy Award-winning writer and researcher Richard Dewhurst, "The Ancient Giants Who Ruled America," he claimed that in 1883, the Smithsonian dispatched a team of archaeologists to the South Charleston Mound in West Virginia to conduct an extensive dig of 50 mounds found in this location.

Drawing on 400 years of newspaper articles and photos, first-person accounts, state historical records, and illustrated field reports, Richard J. Dewhurst reveals not only that North America was once ruled by an advanced race of giants, but also that the Smithsonian has been actively suppressing the physical evidence for nearly 150 years.
