You start with their toes and move up their body, one part at a time. Up the front, over the top, down the back, and repeat. This is one of the most crucial steps when learning how to place someone in a deep trance as it helps the subject to relax but also takes their mind off the fact that they're being hypnotized.

After picking up a basic "how-to-do-hypnosis" book at the local bookstore, Rory learned hypnotherapy by trial-and-error. By going out and "having a go", he began to help to make positive changes to the lives of his friends and family (and himself). His passion for hypnotherapy grew and grew, yet the "performer" inside wanted a little more...
