The rewards to improving our schools are very, very large, but the policies that are needed are politically difficult. Nonetheless, we have to change the direction of our schools in order to improve student outcomes.

IGNORANCE CAUSED HIM TO STARVE (COST OF IGNORANCE) A man once boarded an aircraft to attend a conference, he has little money on him after paying the ticket fee. It was his first trip by air.

"There is a cult of ignorance in the United States, and there has always been. The strain of anti-intellectualism has been a constant thread winding its way through our political and cultural life, nurtured by the false notion that democracy means that 'my ignorance is just as good as your knowledge.'" — Issac Asimov
