104 - ORTIZ DARIO

Ken Dryden's The Game is acknowledged as the best book about hockey, and one of the best books about sports ever written. Then came Home Game (with Roy MacGregor), also a major TV-series, in which he explored hockey's significance and what it means to Canada and Canadians.

Quotes by Ken Dryden "I feel nothing, I hear nothing, my eyes watch the puck, my body moves—like a goalie moves, like I move; I don't tell it to move or how to move or where, I don't know it's moving, I don't feel it move—yet it moves. And when my eyes watch the puck, I see things I don't know I'm seeing.
