Preparing for Your Inner Journey - Chopra

The inner journey is really nice to read. The concept of concentrating on navel (The life energy) is really true to feel. A person can realize himself only when he find time to travel within himself. it is necessary for every human being to find time for self realization, for knowing about their own character.

Understanding our inner experience and how it relates to external events gives us the ability to move forward and manage whatever comes our way. Perhaps you would like to talk about particular issues, resolve questions or explore your Inner Journey? My time is offered on the basis that is explained on the Contribute page.

The Inner Journey gave me access to aspects of myself (and my unconscious patterns) that I didn't realize were inhibiting my ability to be free. Exploring these fundamental areas of our human condition with like-minded souls, and being witnessed in our authentic vulnerability, is essential for anyone seeking true liberation from what no longer serves.

The journey into widening the length, width, and depth of your consciousness and inner spirit is a well-directed, "conscious" endeavor. Though it may be initiated by chaos in the form of an illness, or loss, or whatever earthly trauma falls upon us, the first wise move is to harness that trauma and direct the flow of its power, lest the power of that trauma direct us.
