The Lost Garden - Restore & Reconnect

The Lost Garden A garden is a place of beauty, wonder and magical creativity. We each have within us a magical garden full of creative ideas and fun. The problem for many of us is that we lose sight of our own wonder and creativity, we lose our own inner garden.

The Lost Garden is an eloquent portrait of the losses incurred as we struggle to hold on to our passions. The novel begins with the family of Zhu Yinghong, whose father, Zhu Zuyan, was imprisoned in the early days of Chiang Kai-shek's rule. Zhu Zuyan spends his days luxuriating in his Lotus Garden, which he builds according to his own desires.

In the garden Colin learns to walk and he becomes a healthy and happy young boy. When Lord Craven one day sees the children playing in the garden, he is amazed by the sight of his son walking. He feels joy for the first time since years. Written by Annie_2330

The Lost Garden of Penicuik was a community project to restore the Upper Walled Garden of the Penicuik House Estate in Midlothian, Scotland and to grow fruit and vegetables there for the local community. The garden was originally created around 1877 and was a productive vegetable, fruit and flower garden for many years.

The Secret Garden (2020) - IMDb

At the Lost Gardens there's a network of magical gardens, woodland walks and farmland brimming with interest and intrigue; and with over 200 acres - enough room to tire the most energetic little legs!

The Lost Garden is a beautiful evocation of time and place, longing and loss. This is a very well-crafted and moving novel. The images and emotions brought to life by Helen Humphrey's book stayed with me long after I had finished reading it. Both witty and haunting this book is a real gem.
