The world is a mirror: what looks in looks out. The original simile used the word 'him' instead of 'any-one.' The world is like a drunken peasant. If you lift him into the saddle on one side, he will fall off on the other. The biblical passage concludes with "Who's rich today may not be so tomorrow." In the Mishna,...

For your love
For your love I'm just a little bit afraid of you
Cause love won't make you cry
But, wait until the crowd goes
Oh, wait until the crowd goes
I'm just a little bit afraid of you
So deep in your room,
You never leave your room
Something deep ...

To be "not of the world" requires us to be free of worldly influence. This does not mean that we do not participate in government or typical social processes. It means that we do not act as the un-saved world does. We are not slaves to our sinful natures but act in accordance with righteousness (Romans 6:6, 11).
